Increased Attendance at Methodist Church-Ordination of Miss Jones.

Last Sunday morning the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. Robert Williams, preached a very interesting sermon on "Among the thirty, but not among the three," his text being from 2d Samuel, 32:20-23, and in the evening he perached an "Jewels;" test, Malachi 3:15-17. There has been quite an increase in the M. E. church attendance of tate. Next Sunday morning he will give "An exposition of the books of Jonah." In the evening the Epworth league will hold their service; topic: "Our relationship with one another." Leadet, Mrs. M. H. West.

New Year's Gift to Paster and Wife $110-Marriage Announcements.

Rev. Mr. Gardner at the Congregational church Sunday morning preached from Deut, 2:3; topic: "Change of Compass." Rev. E. W. Darrow's text was Isaiah 1:18. There was not as large an attendance at either church as usual, on account of the roughness of the roads and prevailing colds.

The New Year's party was a success, although postponed. There was not as large an attendance as on some previous ocasions, but many who could not come were represented by a contribution, and the gift for the beloved pastor and his no less beloved wife was $110—the largest sum ever realized at a New Year's party in the history of the church.
